

NON-APHIS INSPECTION FOR MISSING ANIMALS	A dealer must make his/her facility and records available for the purpose of searching for missing animals. [2.128]
	The facility and records must be available: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• during normal business hours• upon request to:<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ police officers▶ officers of other law enforcement agencies, such as:<ul style="list-style-type: none">R sheriffsR marshalsR U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service officialsR Office of Inspector General officials A dealer is required by the AWA and its regulations to allow police or other law officer(s) access to his/her facility if the officer meets all of the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the request for access is made during normal business hours• the dealer is furnished with a written description of the animal and the name and address of the owner before the search• the officer complies with routine security measures required by the dealer, such as the use of masks, protective clothing and footwear, to prevent the spread of disease, or the escape of any animals A dealer is not required by the AWA to allow access to his/her facility by agencies limited to enforcement of local animal regulations, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• humane societies• court-appointed humane investigators• animal control officers• private investigators